

Construction Worker Sign (Arm Up with Finger Pointing)

Product Images

Description

Safety Construction Worker signs are used to bring clear attention to hazards within a construction site such as overhead powerlines, workers travel paths or sensitive site equipment. Tap into the psychology of workers and pedestrians by giving a psychological link between the people working on-site and the dangers that workers face.

- Available in 4 options to suit your site requirements.

Additional Information

Traffic Sign Material	Flute
Traffic Sign Size	1800mm x 900mm